

Strongest in the World...

The Equitable Life Assurance Society

OF THE UNITED STATES.

GRIGSBY & MUNCEY,

General Agents
Eastern Kentucky.

THE BEST OF THEM ALL!!

LIPPINCOTT'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE

Contains a complete novel in every number, in addition to a large quantity of useful and entertaining reading matter.

No continued stories, which are so objectionable to most readers.

It should be in every household. Subscription, $3.00 per year.

The most liberal inducements will be offered.

J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY, Publishers, PHILADELPHIA.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

ATTORNEYS.

R. W. MILLER,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
RICHMOND, - KENTUCKY.
Office in the Bureau Building, next door to the National Bank. Feb-17

J. A. SULLIVAN,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
RICHMOND, - KENTUCKY.
Office over Taylor's Hardware store, opposite Court House, on Main Street.

HOGG,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
RICHMOND, - KENTUCKY.
Office No. 13 First St., up stairs. 31-30

J. C. & D. M. CHENAULT, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
RICHMOND, - KENTUCKY.
Office on Second street, over Chen-ault's grocery.

PHYSICIANS.

DRS GIBSON, & GIBSON,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,
RICHMOND, - KENTUCKY.
Office in the J. C. Collins building, at 10 and 32nd Street, over White & Black druggists. 27-29

CHAS. HOOKER, VETERINARY SURGEON, Graduate Ontario Veterinary College.
Veterinary Dentistry and Sterility a Specialty.
Office up stairs, over store recently acquired by Richmond Harness Co., East 1st Richmond, Ky. apr-17

H. C. JASPER, M. D.
Medicine and Surgery.
Office—Collins Building, Main Street.
Telephone at residence (the Carr place) on Broadway.

W. E. EVANS, M. D.,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,
RICHMOND, - KENTUCKY.

DR. T. J. TAYLOR, Practitioner in Medicine and Surgery,
RICHMOND, - KENTUCKY.
28-Office and residence on Second Street.

DENTAL SURGERY.

Dr. Valentine K. Robson DENTIST, OF LOUISVILLE, KY.
28-Office next door to Government Building, Richmond, Ky. Office hours—9 to 12 to 4.
10-17-17

Four nice rooms for rent.
Call at Dental Office of Dr. Robson, next door to postoffice.

Dr. Louis H. Landman
No. 30 West Ninth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. will be at the Hotel Zimmer, Richmond, Ky., on Wednesday, May 10, 1899, returning every second Wednesday of each month. Reference every physician of Richmond, Ky. 10-17-17

KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY.
R. L. CIVIL, President, Lexington, Ky.
LEARN, BIBLE, MEDICAL, AND COM-MERICAL COLLEGE.
Tuition for Literary and Bible Course $22 a year. More than twenty teachers, $100,000 endowment. Thousands of successful alumni.
Social and moral welfare of students receive special attention. Open to both sexes. For catalogues address the President. 11-17-17

ILLINOIS CENTRAL!

SHORT LINE TO

New Orleans.

Best Line to ARKANSAS, TEXAS,
MEXICO
AND CALIFORNIA.

Pullman Tourist Sleeping Car leaves Louisville every Thursday night and runs through to San Francisco. Thousands of successful alumni.
Social and moral welfare of students receive
special attention. Open to both sexes. For
catalogues address the President. 11-17-17

A. H. HANSON, WM. A. KELLOND, O. P. A., Chicago. A. G. P. A., Louisville.

THE PUNCTUATION POINTS.

Six little marks from school are we,
Very important, all agree, Filled to the brim with mystery.
Six little marks from school.

One little mark is round and small,
But when it stands the voice must fall.
At the close of a sentence, all Place this little mark from school:

One little mark, with a comma trailing, Holds up the voice, and never failing, Tells you not long to pause when halting This little mark from school:

If out of breath you chance to meet Two little dots, both round and neat, Pause, and these tiny guardsmen greet—These little marks from school:

When shorter pauses are your pleasure, One trail the sword-takes half the space,
Then speed you on to seek new treasure,
This little mark from school:

One little mark, ear shaped, implies "Keep up the voice—wait replies!"
To gather information tries,
This little mark from school:

One little mark, with an exclamation, Presents itself to your observation,
And leaves the voice at an elevation,
This little mark from school:

Six little marks! Do sure to heed us; Carefully study, write and read us;
For you can never cease to need us,
Six little marks from school!

—Julia M. Colton in St. Nicholas.

LOCAL.

Mr. Van Meter Won.

With a brain new speech and one out of the ordinary, being highly dramatic, Mr. Ben S. Van Meter, a Shelby county student, won the gold medal for the best declamation in the contest between the two literary societies at C. U. last Friday night. Mr. Van Meter had read Quo Vadis and liking the story of the Gladiator, which is scarcely less thrilling than General Wallace's Ben Hur, he set quietly to work to memorize the narrative. By cutting out and piecing together he secured a declamation which probably was never before rendered in public. And since it has been awarded first prize he shall not be surprised to hear Quo Vadis' Gladiator resounding here and hereabouts for the next five years by ambitious young orators.

Rare Mementos of the War. Of Special Interest to Ladies.

A friend here has a letter from the Episcopal Rector, Alex. C. Hensley, of Versailles, wherein he expresses a willingness to sell a set of pure Mandarin china, which he lately received from Canton, China. This fine ware has a history that gives added value to it.
Rev. Hensley ordered the china through a naval officer who was stationed at Canton, China, just at the outbreak of the Spanish War, and it was stored in the Olympia, the flagship of Admiral Dewey's squadron just as the ship were ordered to Manila. A letter from the officer said the china was stored in the ship below the water line, and that if the Olympia survived battle Mr. Hensley would receive the fine plate; if not it would have to go down. To possess a set of china with such a history, added to its intrinsic value, may be the desire of some lady readers of the CLIMAX, who would like to possess such a memento of Dewey's naval victory at Manila. The set or in pieces can be purchased direct from Rev. Alex. Hensley, of Versailles, who by the way is a cousin of Mrs. C. D.
Chenault, of this city.

STOCK AND FARM.

Farmers report tobacco plants doing well. The usual crop will be planted this year.

A writer to the Breckers Gazette says all foreign feed should be cut before the seed form.

Hudson & Co.'s large warehouse in Garrard county, on May 2, containing 2,000 pounds of hemp, 500 barrels of corn and much valuable machinery, burned with all its contents. Origin of fire unknown. Insurance $10,000, which will not cover the loss.

Good Blood!

Your heart beats over one hundred thousand times each day.
One hundred thousand supplies of good or bad blood to your brain.

Which is it?
If it is pure blood, then your brain aches. You are troubled with drowsiness yet cannot sleep.
You are tired in the morning as at night. You have no nerve power. Your food does you but little good.

Stimulants, tonics, headache powders, cannot cure you; but Sarsaparilla

Sarsaparilla

will. It makes the liver, kidneys, skin and bowels perform their proper work. It removes all impurities from the blood. And it makes the blood rich in its life-giving properties.

To Hasten Recovery.

You will be more rapidly cured if you take a laxative dose of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It arouses sluggish liver and thus cures biliousness.

Write to our Doctors.

We have the names of several of the most eminent physicians in this country who will gladly attest to the value of Sarsaparilla in your case.

Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL!

SHORT LINE TO

New Orleans.

Best Line to ARKANSAS, TEXAS,
MEXICO
AND CALIFORNIA.

Pullman Tourist Sleeping Car leaves Louisville every Thursday night and runs through to San Francisco. Thousands of successful alumni.
Social and moral welfare of students receive special attention. Open to both sexes. For catalogues address the President. 11-17-17

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

For The Climax:

A FUNERAL IN THE KENTUCKY MOUNTAINS.

I stood on a lofty mountain's crest Solitary? yes and no! For none was near,
And yet, as the ruddy light faded in the west, I felt myriad presences, and could hear Unnumbered voices that made the air Vibrant with supernatural stir.

The stillness and whiteness of a deep snow Enveloped the roomy and silent spaces Of mountain slope and valley below—Birds and foxes were in hiding places—No living creature was visible—no Footprints marred the unblemished snow.

Memories, "linked by many a hidden chain," Silently passed in review in the twilight Shadows. Sweet pleasures and throbbing pain Engaged my thoughts as the coming night Brushed away the blood-red after-glow From that wide expanse of untrodden snow.

Presently, with crunching, muffled tread, A funeral train passed near,
Bearing some beloved dead On a rudely constructed bier.
(A pole that supported by a rope The casket and body of a child) And the bearers slowly grope Their way in single file Down the darkening mountain side.
A single mourner walked beside the bier—With one trembling hand he tried To steady it—with the other brushed a tear From his weary, hardened face.
When the child is under the soil In this wild and desolate place, Will even the all-pervading mercy of God Shine with one glimmering ray Into the darkness of his home?
Surely his is a hard, lonely way.
Some messenger of hope will come.
There is a time somewhere—a place somewhere (Is it ill-deserving or no)
That will some compensation bear For present desolation and we.

Yes, this picture is poorly drawn,
But it lives in my mind and heart And often casts its solemn shadow on My pathway in the city's crowded mart.

E. A. G.

NEW YORK FASHIONS.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she slept incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Latz.
This writes W. C. Hannick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. "Trial bottles free at Perry & Thomas' Drug Store. Success sure to W. C. White. Regular size 50c and $1.00; every bottle guaranteed. 4

The funeral of Private Richard Clure, of the First Kentucky Volunteers, who died at Manassas August 23, 1862, while serving with his command in Porto Rico, took place at Lagrange with military honors, last Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Bob Ingersoll probably looks upon the purchase of an old English Bible for $750 as money thrown away.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

QUEEN & CRESCENT ROUTE

Presbyterian Assembly, Richmond, Virginia, May 17-19, 1899.

Queen & Crescent Routes and connecting lines. One fare the round trip May 10th and 17th. Finest train service in the South. Tickets good till June 3, returning. Ask your ticket agent for particulars.

LITERARY NOTES

BOOK NEWS FOR MAY.

"Book News" for May again emphasized its claim to be the foremost literary chronicle of our time by presenting in addition to its many department specialties, all contributed by writers of eminence in their respective fields, some features of striking interest which attract its attention. This "Book News" was among the first publications to recognize the merit of "David Harum," and this month it presents the only large portrait of the deceased author, Edward Noyes Westcott, which has ever been printed, together with a reproduction of his autograph—the only one ever published and a sketch of his career. Another feature of the May "Book News" which will attract unusual attention among literary folks is the autograph letter from Onoto Watanabe, the gifted young authoress, half English and half Japanese, who Ilowed a residence in Chicago, and actually with peculiar charm of individuality the story of her life and of her methods of literary work. One of the most striking poems inspired by the recent was that by Grace Duffie Ryan, entitled "Hosanna and Huzak." The full text of this excellent production appears in the present number. It has been estimated that more than thirty new books drop from English and American presses every day in the year. It is the province of "Book News" to keep track of them all—to give you frankly, fairly and promptly a clear idea of all that merit attention the sort of information which every reader constantly requires and which he could not possibly gather for himself though he should give his whole life to the task. This information "Book News" employs a corps of experts to gather for him; and since it thence gives book prices, it can easily save the book buyer the many times the fifty cents a year (five cents a copy) which it costs. John Wanamaker, Philadelphia and New York.

PANOLA.

Every farmer is harraging to get his own plan.

Chas. Crow, son of Rev. Jas. Crow was baptized Sunday evening by Rev.
J. T. Turner.

Columbus Fox, wife and daughter are slowly recovering from effects of poison drunk in buttermilk. How it came there is a mystery.

Jack Carr, grandson of Wm. Carr, of this place, who served a term in the 4th Kentucky Volunteers, recently of the U. S. Regulars, died at Columbus Baracks, Ohio, Saturday night.

SPECIAL RATES TO RICHMOND, VA., VIA CHESAPEAKE & OHIO RY.

On account of the Presbyterian General Assembly 10 and 17, the C. & O. Ry. will sell round trip tickets at one fare for the round trip good returning until June 3d. Write for sleeping car berths or any information to George W. Barney, D. P. A., Lexington, Ky.

Thieves stole the silver communion service from a Christian church near Hopkinsville.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. Ben Helm, who is here, tells us that he held a three days' meeting at Boren in which there were 30 reclamations and sanctifications. He held a previous meeting there in March, the net results of both being about 90 saved.
—Stanford Journal.

A Georgia Negro preacher thus explained: "The most powerful parable is that 'bout ole King Potiphar on Queen Jezebel. Ole King Potiphar waz gwine erlong in his fo' hoos chariot 'om Jericho ter Jerusalem, when he pass Queen Jezebel walkin' in de dus' 'long de road. She look at him on say, 'White man, lemme ride,' en he tackler up behin' him. En de young man, he rode under a branchin' oak, en his haz got rop eroun' er lin', en de mule waz under him went away. En dey got down, dey did, en blowed on er ram's ho', en de walls fell down.
En de dogs cum en lick'd his sores; en de dev's got inter de hogs, en he hogs got inter de sea. En dey gather'd up av de fragmints darof 12 huskils full.
Now, de question is, whose wife is she gwine be at de resurrection?"

At the Methodist church, on Sunday morning, the former much beloved pastor, R. S. Polk, President Elder, conducted the services. His sermon was a touching and beautiful discourse upon the blessedness of Christian partitage and the virtue of friendship.
The former was exemplified in the lives of Zachariah and Elizabeth, the parents of John, whom Christ pronounced the greatest of the prophets. Friendship has a lofty example in the devotion of the followers of John when the latter was imprisoned on the banks of the Dead Sea.

Indeed, there can be left to children no greater legacy than the memory of saintly parents. On the contrary, the child that never knew the influence of godly parents is most unfortunate. Too little concern is given to the religious training of children.
Paul, in his letters to Timothy, said, "From a babe, thou hast known the holy Scriptures." The present writer in this world is the religious training given to children. The hard environments of the early life of John were like many to-day who are reared in ob-scurely where Nature yields not her penalty to the toil of man as in the more favored places of earth. Under such conditions, early impressions for good are deeply grounded in children, and conduce to their mental, moral and physical strength and influence. To this same John, of lowly birth but Godly parents, fell the honor of making Christ known to the world, the commissioned saint of the Almighty.
His fame went to farthest Galilee, and Simon, Andrew, James and John received his message, repented, were consecrated by baptism and put on the armor of the Lord. But how touching the meeting of John with Christ when He came to be baptized! As he looked into the face of Jesus, John drew back and said, "I am not worthy to administer baptism to this holy man." Up to this time, John was the recipient of the world's greatest honor and praise, but see how gracefully he yields all to Christ: "He must henceforth increase, but I must decrease." This self hope, giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go, tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and fancy that John, like Simon, when he first saw and lifted the Christ-child to his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has lost one of that indescribable charm, which we delight to believe is the inimitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home. Then Jesus said "Go,
tell your master what ye have seen."
When he told John of these wonders,
his heart is lifted, and he thanks his
devoted friends for their priceless service in his greatest extremity, and
fancy that John, like Simon, when he
first saw and lifted the Christ-child to
his breast, said, "Now, Lord, let thy
servant die in peace." Mr. Pollitt has
lost one of that indescribable charm,
which we delight to believe is the in-
imitable grace of Jesus. This self hope,
giving them of the riches of his Father's home.

Men's A Few Eye Openers!

FURNISHINGS

PRICES Guaranteed to Please

Having bought in very large quantities we are in a position to quote the following LOW PRICES:

Ladies' all solid leather Oxford, Dongola Kid or Calf, common sense, size 3 to 8 EE, price.....$1.00 worth $1.25

Ladies' extra nice light weight Kid Oxford, Black or Tan, common sense or Coin toe, kid or patent tip, size 3 to 8 D or E, price.....$1.00 worth $1.25

Ladies' Vici Kid, 2 button low shoes, all the color, patent tip, size 3 to 8 E, price.....$1.00 worth $1.25

Ladies' Vici Kid, tan lace spring heel, kid tip, Coin toe, size 3 to 7 E, price.....$1.00 worth $1.25

Ladies' Vici Kid in heel or spring heel, lace or button, kid or patent tip, size 3 to 8 D or E.....$1.00 worth $1.25

Men's new Tan Box Calf in lace or button, all style toes, size 6 to 11, D, E and EE.....$1.00 worth $1.25

Men's new Tan Box Calf, light or dark shade, all style toes, size 6 to 11, D, E and EE.....$1.00 worth $1.25

Men's Black or Tan, Vici, in all styles, lace or congress, size 6 to 11, D, E and EE.....$1.00 worth $1.25

Men's Black or Tan, Vici or Calf, all styles, size 6 to 11, E and EE.....$1.00 worth $1.25

We have a Complete Line of Men's, Ladies', Children's and Infants' FINE SHOES.

RICE & ARNOLD,

Successors to WALLACE & RICE.

WE ARE SOLE AGENTS FOR THE BOY'S AND MISSES' BLACK CAT LEATHER STOCKINGS.

$10.00

Is very Little Money to invest in a Suit, but if the Suit is not made of the right fabric, is not tailored properly, has no style, your investment of $10.00 is Virtually a Loss. Every investment you make in Clothing from our store will be gilt edge.

For Example:

Our $10.00 Suits

Are absolutely All-Wool, beautifully finished Cassimeres, every garment Sewed through and through, Upper and Lower Skirt with 6,000 Government Standard Pure Dye Silk, Lined with extra fine real Italian Lining, Sleeves are Lined with plain color Pongee Silk finish Sateen Sleeve Lining, Satin under collar, Thirty rows of stitching, French facing and broad Satin piping. Every detail of inside and outside tailoring is done with care and thought to have the garments fit perfectly and give the Wearer Lasting Satisfaction. There are no better tailored garments than ours, there is no way to make them better. You want to see our Suits before looking elsewhere, as we can make your $10.00 do what it will take much more to do as well elsewhere.

COVINGTON & MITCHELL.

SOLE AGENTS FOR THE BOY'S AND MISSES' BLACK CAT LEATHER STOCKING.

The Richmond Climax.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, - - - 1890.

—Dr. Hobson, Dentist.

—Proctor Knott Clear.

—Sam Jones will be here on May 27th.

—The Climax will print the list to claims this year.

—Hail of immense size fell here yesterday morning.

—Sam Jones is to be here on May 27 for one night only.

—Have you been in Stouffer's new store, on Main street?

—Large Century Plant for sale. Apply to Mrs. J. B. Willis.

—Mrs. J. B. Willis has a superb Century Plant for sale.

—Stouffer has moved to Main street, next to John G. Taylor's.

—M. C. Yates sold a car-load of hogs to Jas. McKinney at $3.40.

—Olan Shifflett, aged 23 years, died Monday, of typhoid fever.

—When Sam Jones comes to town a lot of other Sams will leave.

—Stouffer for Sam Jones' lecture now on sale at Stockton & Hagan's.

—J. W. Ballard shipped a car load of hogs to Cincinnati Thursday.

—Dr. H. C. Jasper was elected jail physician by the Fiscal Court.

—M. F. Arbuckle sold to E. L. Woods a bunch of hogs at $3.25.

—Finest line of neckwear in the city at Stouffer's new store, Main street.

—I have a new upright piano for sale or trade. Lyman Parrish, may10-4t.

—J. W. Ballard bought of Judge Goodloe one car load of hogs at $3.33.

—Thos. Jones is the new Democratic committeeman in Biggestall precinct.

—Largest line of hats and caps in Richmond at Stouffer's Main street store.

—Low rates to Louisville and returning May 12, via L & N account of rates.

—Ky. League of American Wheelmen meets here in annual convention June 15.

—The rain of Saturday and Sunday was timely, as the ground was needing it badly.

—Will Newby and Miss Lizzie Benjamin were married at Nicholasville last Monday.

—Judge Tarvin spoke at Shelbyville on Monday. We would like to have been there, sure.

—Cut worms are very numerous in the Red House region, where corn is coming up badly.

—Dr. Dunn was awarded the City Pauper practice by the Fiscal Court, at $80 per annum.

—Dr. Frazee removed Thomas Stewart's ear yesterday at the Infirmary on account of cancer.

—The order to clean up your premises should be complied with to prevent disease and save cost.

—Stouffer took more than 100 measures in one week for suits and pants. New store, Main street.

—Stouffer sells more clothing for the money than any other clothier. New store, Main street.

—G. W. Deatherage and J. B. Dole celebrated their 39th birthdays on Monday night at Red House.

—One and one-third fare for round trip to Cincinnati May 2 to 20, good for five days returning via L & N.

—The alarm of fire last Thursday night was due to the burning of saw dust at Myer's planing mill. No loss.

—Stouffer has taken more measures for suits to order this spring than all the rest combined. New store, Main St.

—Miss Temple Oldham will close cheap her small line of ladies' handkerchiefs, underwear and hosiery. Come at once. april10-1a —Everett Witt & Co. have bought nearly all the wool in the Red House region at and ranging from 15 to 25 cents. Corn is selling there at $2 per barrel.

—The Fiscal Court retained Mr. C. M. Roberts as keeper of the Poor House, and his wife as matron. E. R. Wells was re-elected Receiver of the Poor House.

—T. J. Marshall has sold a half interest in his grist mill, at Red House, to Frank Stuart, and will add a new flour mill of the old-fashioned burr process.

—Dr. J. W. Scudler's proposition to act as physician at the Poor House without compensation, the county to pay for $50 worth of drugs, was accepted by the Fiscal Court.

—Robert Mason, of Whites Station, sold to Ernest Woods 12 fat hogs, average 217 pounds, at $3.50, and two car loads of cattle to be delivered in July at $1 and $1.10 per hundred.

—Attorney S. R. B. Black, is collector and agent for the Blue Grass Insurance Company, the cheapest and most reliable company for the people of our county now operating in the State.

—We are closing out all our goods in order to remodel our house. Clothing, hats, shirts and underwear at your own price at Stouffer's new Main street store, next door to Farmer's National Bank.

—300 sample summer coats and vests just opened, in all the latest and best style, at less than manufacturers cost to be closed on Stouffer's new clothing house, Main street, opposite Madison National Bank.

—The Harst Home Insurance Company, of Milwaukee, Ky. has appointed Win. M. Hise, of College Hill, director for Tipton precinct. Mr. Hise is a young thorough business man, and will carefully guard the company's interest in his territory.

Full Line of HATS

RICE & ARNOLD

HOT BARGAINS

THE Busy Bee Cash Store's Bargains

Shrivel up Competition. Their SPRING ANNOUNCEMENTS meet the coolest, shrewdest buyers. Everyone is warmed with enthusiasm. HOT BARGAINS keep our delivery wagons smoking. THE BUSY BEE CASH STORE'S BARGAINS never disappoint. They are always better than expectation. See the tempting list below:

Tobacco Canvas.....1c yard

Tobacco canvas, best grade.....2c yard

Good yard-wide Brown Cotton.....3c yard

Good yard-wide Bleached Cotton.....4c yard

10-4 Unbleached Sheeting.....12c yard

Good Bed Ticking.....16c yard

Best grade Bed Ticking.....7c to 14c yard

Cottonade for boy's pants.....8c yard

Best New York Mills Camel Jeans.....10c yard

Extra heavy Cotton Cassimers.....12c yard

Best grade Apron Gingham.....4c yard

Nice Dress Gingham.....5, 6 and 7c yard

Fine French and Silk Gingham.....8c to 25c yard

All-wool Dress Goods, 20 inch wide, stylish, and pretty Cheviot effects.....10c yard, worth 35c

Nice Bleached Towels.....10c each

Our Clover Leaf Damask Towels are now only 10c each

Men's and Boy's Percale Shirts.....25c each

Baby Shoes, all colors and white.....25c

Ladies' kid, button and lace Shoes, pat tip.....only 75c

Men's "Sunday Shoes," good quality.....only 75c

Men's Cassimere Pants, black and blue.....75c per pair

Our Boy's Knee Suits are all Double Knee and Seat.

In this "Hot Bargain Sale" we are naming Special Prices on Table Linens, Napkins and Doilies. They will go very fast at prices named.

We are showing the handsomest and prettiest line of Crepons, Tailor-made Suitings, Silk Waists and Dress Patterns ever shown in this city. As these goods are the Cullings of the largest dry goods importing houses in the East, it will pay you to look at them.

In our "Ready to Wear" Department we are showing a beautiful line of Ladies' Silk and Woolen Skirts, Shift Waists, Muslin Underwear, Bonnets, etc. Our "Hot Bargain" prices prevail in this Department.

See Our Line of Lace Curtains. We Have Just Received

Dot Swiss Curtains, Oil Shades, Carpets, Mattings, Oilcloths, Curtain Poles, Trunks, Valises, etc. We are showing the largest assortment of these goods to be seen this side of the large cities. Our "Hot Bargain" prices are a guarantee for their cheapness.

Get Our Hot Bargain Prices on All Kinds of Hosiery.

We have placed on sale the "Red Hottest" line of Clothing ever shown in this city. We carry everything in favor this season in this department. Get our Hot Bargain Prices on this line before purchasing elsewhere. Respectfully,

- W. D. OLDHAM & COMPANY. -

RICHMOND, MT. STERLING AND GEORGETOWN

ONLY A FEW DAYS LONGER

STRENGTH

One-Fourth Off Clearing Sale will last.

TAKE TIME

By the forelock if you want the benefit of the One-Fourth OFF

On all Heavy Goods such as Suits, Overcoats, Shoes, Underwear, Hats, &c.

H. J. STRENG,

The Clothier, The Sherr, The Hatter, The Furnisher.

The Non-Irritating Cathartic

Hood's Pills

The New Era Institute will be held at Harrodsburg May 10-12.

In Constipation Herbine affords a natural, healthy, and effective remedy. A few small doses will usually be found to regulate the excretory functions that are unable to operate without any aid whatever. Price 50 cents. Perry & Thomas, 1m

The Methodist Board of Insurance is ready for business.

For Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis or Consumption, Hood's Pills are equal to Cassen's Honey of Tar. Price 25 and 50 cents Perry & Thomas, may3-1m

The Lexington Chautauqua will be held June 27 to July 7, inclusive.

To be Happy or cheerful or useful is next to an impossibility when one is suffering from a discomforting cold or a nasty little cough. If you are "down in the mouth" from the effects of a coughing cold, you will find relief in the use of a 25c bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Druggists sell it.

The Baptist Congress will meet at Pittsburgh November 14-16.

Nothing has ever been produced to equal or compare with Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment as a curative and healing application for Piles, Fissures, itching and bleeding, external or internal, and itching and bleeding of the rectum. The relief is immediate and complete. Price 25c a bottle. Sold by Perry & Thomas, may3-1m Prof. Cash and Elrod have been elected to conduct Clinton College, Ky.

Children Catch Cold more easily than grown folks, and their constitutions will not permit of quinine or other radical treatment. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is not only absolute harmless, but is pleasant to the taste, and is a certain cure for all coughs and colds.

London District Conference will meet at Hazel Green, June 14.

I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. GIBBS, 1m

The second Sunday in June will be Baptist Sunday-schools' Bible day.

When Nature needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most gentle and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Next Sunday is State mission day for colored Baptists.

Probably was inherited.

SILVER CREEK, Ky. May 4, 1890—Miss Katie McGowan of this place has been affected with acromia from her birth and at times would be almost blind. Finally her neck began to swell and she could not breathe freely. Medicines failed to do her any good until she began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. When she had taken six or eight bottles she was cured.

Whoooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. MOONEY, South Burgettown, Pa. For sale by Perry and Thomas, may3-1m

It now looks like 18 or 19 cents will be about the best price for wool in soon coming.

Ballard's Snow Liniment cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache, Sick Headache, Sore Throat, Cuts, Sprains, Bruises, Old Sores, Corns, and all pain and inflammation. The most penetrating liniment in the world. Price 25 cents and 50 cents. Perry and Thomas, may3-1m

The International Y. M. C. A. convention will meet at Grand Rapids May 25-28.

Planters' CUBAN OIL cures Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Rheumatism and Sores. Price, 25 cents. Sold by Perry & Thomas, successors to W. G. White.

The German Catholic Clubs of Kentucky will meet in Louisville May 21.

Unless a woman eats sufficient nourishing food she can neither gain nor keep a good complexion. Food, when digested, is the base of all health, all strength, and all beauty. Herbine will help digest what you eat and give you the clear, bright, beautiful skin of health. Price 50 and 75 cents. Perry & Thomas, may3-1m

The Edward Atkinson Endless Chain Correspondence Bureau has struck a snag.—Ex.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they enduring the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Pa., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I was like to know that you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by Perry and Thomas, may3-1m Republican organs say the trusts make some things cheaper. Men, for instance.

There is a Difference— a real difference, a vast difference—between Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and any other cough, cold or lung remedy. Besides curing the phlegm and curing the cough or cold at once, it soothes the irritation—heals the bronchitis, and exuberates the lungs. 25c at all good druggists.

A coffin lid may be called a dead open and shut arrangement.

Many a fair young child, whose father has puzzled the mother, until she has suspected rightly her darling was troubled with worms, has regained her rosy hue of health with a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge. Price 25c. Perry & Thomas, may3-1m

A long dry spell is being predicted by the water-wise.

In the spring the birds are singing as they build their summer homes. Blades of grass and buds are sprouting. Over the mead the cattle roam. In the spring your blood is freighted With the germs that cause disease, Humors, boils, are designated. "Signals warning you of these. In the spring that tired feeling Makes you every day shirk— Makes you feel like begging, stealing, Rambling on engaged in work But there's something known that will a Man to health and vigor lead. And win that Hood's Pills will give you Just exactly what you need. may3-1m

The Commercial Telephone Company will run a line from Patesville to Cloverport.

Attractive Women.

Why is one woman attractive and another not? The most attractive thing about an attractive woman is her womanliness. Everybody admires a womanly woman. She has health, of course, because without it she would lose the brightness of her eyes, the fulness of her cheeks and her vivacity. Real health means that a woman is really a woman. That she is strong and perfect in a sexual way as well as in every other. That she is capable of performing perfectly the duties of motherhood. Some are very weak and are called "constitutional weakness." Those who do not enjoy perfect health, need only take the proper precautions and the proper remedy to become perfectly well and strong. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure any derangement of the distinctly feminine organism.

Sent 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Advice," illustrated.

For a little man, Brigadier General Funston, wears a big title very gracefully.

Planters' CUBAN RELIEF cures Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Rheumatism and Sores. Price, 25 cents. Sold by Perry & Thomas, successors to W. G. White.

Several towns in the State will elect two School Trustees at election to be held this afternoon.

Tetter, Salt-Rheum and Eczema.

The intense itching and stinging incident to these diseases is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it. It is equally efficient for itching piles and a favorite remedy for sore nipples, chapped hands, chilblains, frost bites and chronic sore eyes. 25c. per box.

Dr. Cady's Condition Powders, are just what a horse needs when in bad condition. Tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge. They are not food but medicine and the best in use to put a horse in prime condition. Price 35 cents per package.

NEW GROCERY!

Having purchased the Gus Margolen stock of Groceries from Million & Grogan, we will continue the business at the.....

SAME STAND,

On Main Street, next door to the Richmond National Bank. We will keep constantly on hand a full line of STAPLE and FANCY GROCERIES, FRUITS and VEGETABLES. We have already added largely to the stock, and you will find most anything kept in a first-class Grocery. The public is cordially invited to call and inspect our stock and get our LOW CASH PRICES.

Yours Very Respectfully,

Phone 107. J. T. Beasley.

AS ASSIGNEE OF LEWIS P. TODD, ...BEGINNING...

MONDAY, MAY 1ST,

And continuing until the goods are disposed of, I will sell at auction, beginning at 10 o'clock, a. m., 2 p. m., and 7 p. m., the stock of Dry Goods, etc., in the store room on Main Street, next to Richmond National Bank. Major Forsythe, of Paris, will entertain the crowd.

J. E. GREENLEAF, Assignee.

THE CONVENTION

Met and Nominated

And every delegate in attendance was thoroughly convinced that we lead the procession in Style, Quality and Price in Men's, Ladies and Children's Fine Shoes, and Gents' Furnishing Goods.

Call and be convinced of these facts and reap some of the benefits of this great convention that never ends at

DOUGLAS, BRIGHT & CO.'S.

207 WEST MAIN STREET.

